Beach Games

- Beach bull's-eye .....> Draw a large circle in the sand to create a target, and toss rocks or seashells to try to score a bull's-eye.
- Seashell races .....> First, each person finds a seashell. Then, line the seashells up right at the water's edge, where the waves lap up on the beach. When the next wave comes in, whoever's shell moves the farthest wins.
- Sand creatures .....> Instead of the usual sand castles, mix sand and water to sculpt your own sand creatures, and then tell stories about where they came from, what they eat, and where they live. Use shells and rocks for the eyes and nose, a stick or twig for the mouth, and seaweed for hair.
